Dh. L. S. Nicholson, electro-therapentist, is an expert in the use of galvanism. His cures in chronic cases are remarkable. Dr. Nicholson has but one specialty, and that is electricity in all its varied forms. Many patients are cent to the doctor by regular practitioners, and his successful treatment has gained their highest commendation. Patients are always reacted according to their physician's diagnosis. The doctor has shown us indisputable evidences and testimoniate or his skill in the treatment of rheumstiam, nervous deraugement, debility, functional and organic disporders, millness in back of head, epileoby, and kindred complaints. The doctor invites free consultation at his parlors, 1905 F street northwest.

Three Hundred Acres Reclaimed. Maj. P. C. THE DISTRICT IN CONGRESS

Local Matters Considered by Commit tees, and Introduced in the Igouse.

The House committee on the District of Columbia set for the first time yesterday, with Mr. Barbour presiding. There was a full attendance of members, and the roll of the committee was arranged. W. W. Scott, of Virgula, a friend of Mr. Barbour, was appointed clerk to the committee, in place of Mr. Williamson, of Loudoum county, who held it very acceptably last year. After an informal discussion of the programme to be followed, the chalfman was instructed to arrange the subcommittees, which are to be five in number this year, instead of six as last year. The bills before the committee were arranged in order, and the circk was directed to docket them for reference to the various subcommittees would be arranged by Thursday, and the committee adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, at which time they will get down to business.

The appropriations cummittee of the House they restordly, with Mr. Randall in the chair, and, after organizing, he designated the subcommittees of the general committee. That of the Platriet of Columbia is composed of Messra Wilson, and Mr. Comes served on the District committee last sension, and Mr. Le Fevre has been on that committee, so that the appropriations by the District are in the hands of mer who know something about the affairs and needs of the tees, and Introduced in the House.

The False Voucher Trial Closing-A

Clerk's Testimony. At a few minutes before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the prosecution closed its testimony in chief in the case of G. A. Whitaker, on trial in chief in the case of G. A. Whitaker, on trial in the criminal court, charged with presenting false vonchers to the bureau of medicine and surgery. Navy Department, having occupied the day in showing that articles enumerated in the vouchers were never received at the bureau, or sent to any of the naval stations.

Mr. Mattingly, in opening to the jury for the defendant, asserted the innocence of his client, and that the proof to be presented would satisfactorily establish the fact. E. T. Kalser, the first witness, testified that in May, 1983, he was a clirk with Mr. Whitaker, and knew that the latter furnished goods to the bureau of medicine and surgery. Carrigan would come into the store with an envelope, and goods would be sent to the bureau by the porter. The witness had seen Carrigan come to the store and got and seen Carrigan come to the store and get articles without any written order. He had no account there.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY.

Annual Meeting and Encouraging Reports-The Vandalism of Bird Trim-

The Washington Humane Society met at the Y. M. C. A. parlors yesterday afternoon. In the absence of Judge MacArthur, Capt. Truell called the meeting to order. Mr. Moore was elected chairman. The report for the year was an account of the efforts of the society in preventing crucity to animals, and included, also, an account of the efforts exerted in protecting children. It emphasized particularly the crucity of killing humming birds for adorning hats and dresses, some of the more beautiful species becoming extinct on this account, and suggested measures to prevent this vanualism. The receipts of the year were $1,817.00. The disbursements were $1,815.20.

After re-electing Judge MacArthur president for the ensuing year, the society adjourned.

Home, Sweet Home. What is home without a mother? It is not really home, probably; but as a mother cannot always conveniently be had, a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil will be found very usoful in making life pleasant, and in banishing the pains of neuralgia or rheumatism.

Julius Simons's Suit. Julius Simons's Suit.

The action brought by Julius Simons against Lerdingham & Co. to recover $30,000 damages was taken up in the circuit court before Justice Cox yesterday afternoon. In May, 1881, a cab belonging to the defendant came in contact with Mr. Simons at the corner of Ninth and F streets, knocking him down and injuring him seriously. He not only entered the damage suit, but went before the grand jury and procured an indictment against the driver of the cab on the charge of assault. The trial came off last year, during the progress of which all the circumstances of the accident were unfolded, and the driver acquisted of any criminal intent or negligence.

Weighing the Pig. Since the 1st of January we have been "weighing the pig," and find-well, never mind what; that is of no importance to you, but our conclusions are, for we have determined to give our customers some time of year we are willing to make up these goods, not "regardless of cost," but quite regardless of "profit."

We have just "got our grip" on a large assortment of Imported Goods in the piece, comprising some forty or fitty different styles, and made by some of the best manufacturers in the world.

We have never handled any fabrics superior to them in actual value.

In "the season" we expect to make a fair profit on our wares, but at this

The Biggest Kind of Bargains. These goods are usually sold by merchant tailors at $50 to $60 a suit. We have never sold them for less than $45. Now they go at $33 a suit. There will be no lowering of our "standard of work," but everything will be up to the mark, except prices.

We have also selected about Twenty Styles of Cassimeres, and cut prices on them from $3 to $7.50 a suit. Now is your time.

Special Sale This Week! We have succeeded in purchasing a large and handsome stock of Portieres so very much below the regular price that we are enabled to offer such goods as have been bringing $60 a pair at $47.50; extra length and width. Also a very beautiful line at $40; former price, $50. And in the same proportion down the entire list. Some very nice once as low as $8.75. These goods cannot be duplicated at the price we are offering them. We have also determined to place on sale a very complete line of Lace and Madras Curtains, some of them of our own importation, at such low prices as to defly competition. Our stock of Carpets and Furniture will be found full and complete, and at our usual low prices.
